Message from the President

Barry Bernstein

It's summer for sure, and I'm looking forward to seeing many of you at the 4th of July Celebration. UCCA is a major supporter of this annual event. Since it is the 25th Anniversary Celebration, we hope many of you who perhaps have not attended in the past, will be able to enjoy the various family centered activities. There will be local vendors/organizations/ a beer garden, (our local accordion club will be there to provide some great polka music) and our special bike/pet parade. A special 5K run and 1-mile family run/walk are also scheduled this year. Some great evening music is provided by the very outstanding Y3K band. (See the schedule of events on page 20). UCCA will have a booth, so please stop by and say hello. If you haven't joined UCCA, you can be sure we'll have membership envelopes handy! This edition of our newsletter is a combined July/August edition.

Look on your doorstep the first week of September for our next edition. UCCA's newly revised by-laws require prospective nominees for elected office positions to have attended at least two regular UCCA board meetings. If you are interested in running for office, be sure to attend our meetings this fall. Elections take place the second Wednesday in November.

Standley Park's acting director, Courtney Roberts, is now our official permanent director. Congratulations, Courtney!

Our July 10th, UCCA library meeting at 6:00 pm, is open to everyone. We will host assistant fire Chief Ken Barnes who will be discussing the plans for building a fire station in South UC. Also, we have invited Toni Atkins, California State Assemblywoman, to give us an update on how our state legislature is doing. We are also expecting Mr. Mike Borchard, franchise owner of the newly rebuilt Carl's Jr., to give us details of their planned grand opening. UCCA has so many wonderful volunteers. On Sunday, August 18th, at 4:00 pm, prior to the summer concert, UCCA's Volunteer Recognition Event will be honoring and celebrating the contributions of our newsletter and Neighborhood Watch volunteers. These are the individuals who give of their time and energy to make our community "more than just a neighborhood." UCCA has accomplished so much this year with your help and support. We thank you! Have a safe, healthy, and fun summer. Best wishes,

Barry

Newsletter Deliverers and Neighborhood Watch Volunteers Will Be Honored in August

by Barbara Henshaw

If you deliver UCCA newsletters or are involved in Neighborhood Watch on your street, please circle Sunday, August 18th, the day to honor you. The public appreciation event will take place at Standley Park during the summer concert that begins at 4:00 pm. The UCCA board wants to thank you for your help and dedication to our community. Your help makes UC more than a neighborhood.

What's Missing with MTS?

by Sandy Lippe

Ask anyone who waits for a bus on the south side of Governor close to Regents what is missing at the bus stop? The regular bus patrons will tell you there is no place to sit, other than on the ground. UCCA has investigated the reason for the missing bus bench normally placed on the concrete. According to Councilwoman Lightner's office by way of MTS, there are electrical systems below that concrete pad and ADA regulations that make it impossible for the bench to be installed.

UCCA didn't like that answer and pursued the issue. Now there will be a new bus bench installed on the dirt patch adjacent to the concrete patch. While bus benches are not works of art, other than displays for ads, they do serve the community of bus riders who have to wait. Watch for the new bus bench, and give thanks to MTS and Councilwoman Lightner's office. If you have complaints, contact UCCA, your community association, that loves to solve problems. If you haven't joined UCCA yet, can we complain back?

Bus stop and no bench.

Notice:

There is an open business seat on the UCPG executive committee. Dr. Deryl Adderson has resigned from the board. He has a conflict on Tuesday nights. Anyone who is interested should contact John Bassler, membership chair, or Janay Kruger, chair, before July 5th. They should plan on attending the July 9th meeting where applicants will be interviewed. They will be serving out Dr. Adderson's term until March, 2015. They then could run for re-election.

The Scene in University City

by Jemma Samala

UC's summer scene is upon us, and we begin to experience some familiar sights, sounds and smells that come along with this outdoor season.

Soon after school let out, I saw a sight of what I feel is a childhood must do—running a lemonade stand. I made sure to stop by the stand where Madison Menvielle, Hope Denison, John Denison, and Tyler Morton were showing signs of early entrepreneurship. They were selling not only lemonade but also orange juice and candy. Make sure to stop by these pop-up venues and encourage our future businessmen and women.

In UC, the sounds of summer include the music played by the many bands performing during the Outdoor Summer Concert series at Standley Park. What I love is the local connection, as a number of the bands have UC residents as band members. UC's got Rick Kerns with Teaser (July 12), Greg Zinser with Relative Minors & Friends (July 21), and Greg Pardue with two bands, Roadhouse (August 4), and Forecast (August 25). Come out and enjoy our locals' music. Plus, it's FREE, courtesy of our Standley Recreation Council.

Neighbors around Greg Zinser's home get the added value of musical sessions held there on Saturday afternoons. These sessions give musicians the chance to play and sing music in a casual group setting. Some guests just come and listen. The sessions became so popular, Zinser started one just for beginner to intermediate guitar players.

For your daytime outdoor listening pleasure, the UTC Mall offers their Plaza Unplugged series of musicians that perform Wednesdays through Sundays, 12:00 noon to 2:00 pm, in the central court. Performers include Blu Gruv, ZB Savory, Sonia Rao, Josh Domingo, and Matt & Jasmine Commerce. More information about these free musical events can be found on their Facebook page.

The UC Library gets in on the music act too. They're offering a Bluegrass Concert on July 31st, at 6:30 pm, the Villa Musica Women's Chorus on August 13th at 6:30 pm and for the kiddos, Hullabaloo on July 17th at 1:00 pm. That will get the youngsters hopping.

The UC library is also host to a club that has a special meaning to me, The Accordion Club, which meets the 2nd and 4th Saturdays from 9:30 to 11:30 am. Why? As a youngster, my grandparents had visions of a grandchild prodigy who would one day grace the stages of the Lawrence Welk show. I was that grandchild, and the accordion happened to be the instrument of choice. Needless to say, I never got on that stage. Could it be the fact that the accordion always seemed bigger than me? But I had some nice pictures taken. My accordion is collecting dust in my living room. Yes, I still have it, and I used to play a mean Edelweiss.

You'd be glad to know we have much more musically inclined youth in UC. We had quite a talented bunch that performed in the pit orchestra of the CYC Theatre production of Les Miserables shown at the Lyceum Theatre in June. Local UC student musicians that worked in the pit orchestra included students from UCHS - Allie Pilkington, Spencer Pilkington, Lee Hagaman, Yooka Kim, Kimia Nouri, Jenna Hom; Jessica Hall (Standley), and Michael Baddour (Francis Parker). Congrats to these talented musicians who may one day be performing at one of our local concerts.

In the meantime, we look forward to hearing the sounds of Y3K at our Fourth of July Celebration to officially kick off the summer. I'll see you all there! Afterwards, I'll be heading off for a traditional BBQ with friends, where the delicious smells of summer keep me out of a bikini.

(Keep me updated on your UC Scene: jemmasamala@gmail.com)

Neighborhood Watch News Update

bggellman@yahoo.com • Barbara Gellman • 858-452-2326

A big thank you to our newest neighborhood watch captains. Some have already had street meetings or will have them soon. Please plan to attend. The information that is discussed could save you future aggravation. We need everyone involved.

The following story was printed in USA Today on June 9th, 2013, concerning a medical alert scam targeting seniors, specifically those who are disabled or diabetic.

It's a robo-call and the voice implies that somebody signed the elderly person up for a medical alert system. Right now, this scam is taking place in Michigan, New York, Texas, Wisconsin and Kentucky.

Some computerized calls claim they're associated with an insurance company or another well-known name. Some scams even claim that free services come through Medicare, which is not the case at all. If you press the button accepting this service, it could also be a way for con-artists to obtain bank or credit card information or even social security numbers to use later in ID theft.

The Federal Trade Commission took action against Instant Response Systems and its other name, Medical Alert Services.

The BBB is telling consumers to just hang up the phone, do not press any buttons, and if someone does talk to you, be sure to first ask for the company's physical address. If the representative wants your address but won't give out its own address, it's a red flag to a scam.

What to do if you receive one of these calls: CALL 877-382-4357, THE CONSUMER RESPONSE CENTER, or file a complaint electronically at www.ftccomplaintassistant.gov/.

Several communities are reporting break-ins during the day because residents are leaving doors and windows open, not locking their gates to their backyards or using their alarm systems. Please check that these measures have been taken before leaving your home at any time.

Reminder:

For crime in progress or medical emergency, call 911.

A crime that occurred that you didn't observe or you notice suspicious activity such as someone taking recyclables out of the trash, finding car tires slashed or solicitors, call 619-531-2000 to report the problem. Ask for an incident number for tracking purposes. We suggest that you add this phone number into your cell phone.

The San Diego Police Department needs your help in preventing vehicle burglaries and thefts.

- Do not let your guard down when parking in secure parking garages. Vehicle thefts and vehicle burglaries are highest in these areas.
- Do not prop open doors or hold the door open for people to enter your apartment facility. Suspects are not breaking in. They are relying on you to let them in.
- Use a steering wheel locking device.
- Do not leave ANYTHING in view in your vehicle.
- Never leave your garage door opener in the vehicle.
- Write down the serial numbers of your property.
- Report suspicious activity. Most law enforcement arrests start as a call from a concerned citizen.

EYES & EARS

UCCA would like to salute RSVP, Retired Senior Volunteer Patrol, comprised of 40 volunteers in the Northern Division, who partner with the San Diego Police Department as extra eyes and ears. They serve the communities of University City, La Jolla, Pacific Beach, Mission Beach, Bay Park, Bay Ho, Mission Bay and Clairemont.

RSVP volunteers provide assistance to uniformed officers with non-confrontational duties such as: daily neighborhood patrols in residential areas, shopping centers, schools and banks to determine and report suspicious activity. RSVP can monitor traffic speeds using radar, check and cite violators for red-zone parking, disabled parking and vehicles with expired registrations. They patrol for stolen vehicles and license plates. They will contact the police directly if there is something that requires police intervention. They will also assist detectives and sworn officers on investigations and special projects.

Vacation home checks are another great service. By filling out forms at the RSVP office at 4275 Eastgate Mall, La Jolla, you give them permission to access your outside property. If they find something suspicious, then you are contacted or whoever you listed is contacted. If necessary, the police will be called. Keep in mind they are not a private security company.

The You Are Not Alone (YANA) program is awesome. These trained volunteers will check on shut-ins to ensure their safety and well being. Again, detailed forms must be filled out before this service is implemented.

According to Jack Porath, the administrator of the Northern Division of RSVP, there aren't sufficient volunteers to cover this service so, if you are an active senior, 50+, and are interested in enhancing our community, this flexible RSVP program might be right for you. Call 858-552-1711 for more information.

We are so fortunate to have RSVP services available in this community as an added safety net. Wave when you see their marked RSVP patrol cars and give a big "thank you."

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT IS AUGUST 6th, 2013

This event was introduced in 1984 as "America's Night Out Against Crime." It began as an effort to promote involvement in crime prevention activities, police community partnerships, neighborhood camaraderie and to send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back. The traditional "lights on" campaign can be organized street by street with the help of your neighborhood watch captains. This would include block parties, cookouts or just sitting together on lawn chairs, chatting, listening to great music and lights glaring around. Our police officers will be visiting as many streets as possible to share their support. If you are planning to do this, please let me know, and I will give Officer Hesselgesser a list of homes that are involved. Usually the event begins around 5:00 pm and ends around 9:00 pm, but keep those lights on later. Let's "light up" University City big time!

Becoming a UC-er!

by Rachel Tait

"We need a dog," I announced to my husband one Saturday morning soon after we'd moved into our little ranch in UC, breathless, as I carried in a large pickaxe I'd purchased for three dollars at a garage sale a few streets away. The hike up and down the hill had, sad to say, winded me.

"Really?" he asked, eyebrows raised, clearly amused at both my haul and my suggestion. Neither one of us has ever had a pet, and I'd never expressed any interest in one of the canine variety before we purchased our new house.

The thing is, it seemed like everyone in the neighborhood had a dog or was out walking a dog or was just out walking. In the few short weeks we'd lived here, I'd started going to yard sales bright and early, on weekend mornings, to see if I could find any treasures to help complement our sparse furnishings. Driving to houses only blocks away seemed ridiculous, so I'd gotten in the habit of walking. And there were people out everywhere, usually with a dog in tow, stopping to chat in the middle of a side street or charging across a busy intersection to get to the local donut shop.

As a new member of the UC club, it's so easy to see that this is a friendly, active neighborhood. It's one of the main reasons we were attracted to the area when we were home shopping. We've been welcomed with smiles, cookies, and with promises of help if the need arises. And, not surprisingly, we've also been strongly encouraged to get a dog. So don't be surprised if you see me out one early Saturday morning, leash in hand, conversing with a neighbor. I'll be just one of the UC-ers.

We are always looking for ways to improve the appearance of University City which includes the commercial district and residential areas. If you see a commercial area that needs attention, please let us know, and we will talk with the owner or landlord. Residences are another matter.

We all know of one or more homes on our street that need some improvements on the outside. It can be weeds or dead/overgrown shrubs, empty pots lying around, garbage containers sitting out in front or broken fences dangling from their hinges.

Some folks physically or financially can't do the work needed and are hesitant to ask for help. Could you and other neighbors offer to pitch in and get it done? The longer these homes remain in unacceptable conditions the greater the risk for health hazards and fire. As you well know, that by helping others you help yourself so, dig in, one plot at a time.

Updates on Schools in UC

by Pia Mantovani-Sud

We know. The school year has just ended, but here is a rundown of what's coming up. Of notice is the fact that Standley Middle School will start at 8:05 am and end at 2:50 pm or 12:49 pm during minimum days. All other school times will remain unchanged. Keep this schedule in mind come September if you are swimming at Swanson Pool or just driving around Genesee/Governor during that time frame.

BACKPACKS FOR KIDS AT STANDLEY PARK

by June Kubli

It's once again time to purchase backpacks, school supplies packaged socks, and other items that children less fortunate may use to begin their school year. The UC Agent Group of Coldwell Banker, in conjunction with the Office of Children and Youth in Transition, will collect all you have to offer at Standley Park on Sunday, August 4th between 3:00-6:00 pm.

Last year, thanks to the overwhelming support of UC'ers, we collected enough backpacks and accessories to supply many of the 5000+ students who are supported by the Children and Youth and Transition Office. This year, with your help, we hope to fill two trucks!

Look for our truck parked in front of the swimming pool at the park. You may drop off your contributions and then stay to enjoy the musical concert featuring Roadhouse. If for some reason you will not be able to join us on August 4th, we would be happy to pick up your donations. Just call your local Coldwell Banker agent or 858-353-0406, and we will arrange to pick up your contribution.

Stephen Shaw, a Homegrown Hero

by Sandy Lippe

Small American flags were planted on lawns in UC around Memorial Day, and some of these flags are still waving proudly on July 4th, America's birthday. A lighted American flag flies daily at the Shaw home in University City, where Stephen Shaw grew up, went to Marcy, Standley, and UCHS. He was a proud graduate of the UCHS Class of 1990. Stephen was killed in the line of duty on May 17th this year, while as a Special Agent with the FBI, Stephen was part of a hostage rescue team practicing off the coast of Virginia.

Stephen served his country his adult life in the Border Patrol, Diplomatic Security, Customs, and the FBI. He would have celebrated his 41st birthday on July 14th, but Stephen's birthday and his courage, commitment to the country he loved will never be forgotten by his wife and two small children, his mother and sister, his many friends in University City who watched him grow up or grew up with him.

One of his passions was dogs and especially dogs who worked along with him in hostage rescue situations. Donations in his memory can be sent to Search Dog Foundation, SDF Headquarters, 501 East Ojai Avenue, Ojai, CA. 93023.

Stephen gave his life in the defense of his country, and his hometown will never forget him.

Flags placed around UC on Memorial Day.

5th-Grade Curie School Students Partner with the Hyatt Regency La Jolla

by Mark Powell

At the beginning of the school year, every 5th-grade student at Curie Elementary School was given the opportunity to enter into a community-based work partnership contest. Curie students who turned in every homework assignment, book report or project on time were allowed to enter into a raffle to win "A Day At The Hyatt Regency La Jolla". The students who won the raffle were given the opportunity to shadow a worker at the Hyatt for half a day. Some of the job areas included front desk, food and beverage, culinary, engineering, and guest services. The students worked side by side with Hyatt staff preparing meals, checking in guests, transporting luggage and working with building maintenance. 5th grade teacher Annette Saavedra along with human resources manager, Katie Ferguson, helped to coordinate the event which proved to be educational and enriching. School-work partnerships are nothing new, but bringing it to the elementary school level is visionary. Our students are competing in a global economy, and one of the best ways to prepare them is to partner with local businesses and provide them with real-life experiences.

As I am sure many of you have heard, the trolley will be coming to University City and UCSD in the near future as part of the long-awaited Mid-Coast Corridor Transit Project. Construction on the project is scheduled to begin in 2015 with service starting in 2018.

The trolley extension's proposed route begins at the Old Town Transit Center and continues next to the railroad tracks alongside Interstate 5 up to Gilman Drive. The route then crosses to the west side of I-5, just south of Nobel Drive and continues onto the UCSD campus. After making its way onto the campus, the route crosses back over I-5 near Voigt Drive to the UCSD east campus and medical centers on the east side of I-5. Finally, the route transitions into the median of Genesee Avenue and continues down Genesee Avenue to the Westfield UTC transit center.

Just last month, the Environmental Impact Report was released for public review and comment. This document thoroughly analyzes any potential impacts that are associated with the project, such as noise, air quality and traffic.

I will be reviewing the document carefully and providing input to the San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG), which is the agency overseeing the project, by the close of the public comment period on July 17, 2013. I encourage everyone interested in this project to send their comments about the project to SANDAG by July 17th.

Memorial Fountain Dedication for Peter Burch September 21st

by Sandy Lippe

The new fountain that accommodates abled and disabled, as well as dogs, will be dedicated on Saturday, September 21st, at Marcy Park. The donors and all community members are invited to this event. The time will be announced in the September newsletter. Please do mark September 21st on your calendar. Peter Burch, former president of UCCA, passed away in September of 2012 after a courageous battle against cancer.

Well over 100 people donated to this memorial with donations ranging in amounts from $10 from an individual to $2500, seed money from Standley Rec Council. The fountain cost $5,000 and the accompanying plaque with donor names will be an attractive work of art.

Many people would like to see Marcy Park spruced up. UCCA hopes to see this memorial as step one in the process. We thank Johnny Chou and Courtney Roberts of Park and Rec leadership for their support. We salute our new representative from Sherri Lightner's office, Mel Millstein, who will help us through the city process. Finally, we salute the UC knew Peter and or a special who will enjoy a drink of water at his eye level.

Personally, I think University City is a hidden gem within San Diego. I'm certain many residents, past, present and wannabes, share my view. However, University City could be viewed as a road cyclist's dream or nightmare, because to go somewhere else, a cyclist needs to climb uphill! However, let's look at it in a positive light!

On any Thursday afternoon, we are lucky enough to have a thriving certified farmers market in University Towne Center near Macys. The hours of the farmers market are 3:00 to 7:00 pm. Until the end of August, the sun doesn't set until after 7:00 pm, so we have a lot of time to enjoy the market while there is still light. To make a trip to the farmers market an outing, go by bicycle! Yes, it is uphill both ways, but there are also two wonderful hills you can swoop down! For every up, there is a down!

So, pump up your bicycle tires, grab a bicycle lock, strap on a backpack or fit your bicycle with a basket or panniers (bags) and huff it up the hill. If it is a struggle, walk your bike. When you get to the farmers market, stroll around and enjoy the ambience. Pick up some fresh produce to enjoy at home. To fuel your return ride, have a light bite. There are so many tasty choices.

Honestly, it is a tougher ride south along Genesee, but the trip is definitely terrific exercise and most enjoyable!
